NOTICE TO STUDENTS

Revised Deadline for Payment of Fees

(for Eligibility to Sit for End-of-Semester Examinations)

The End-of-Semester Examinations will be conducted from 18th May, 2026 to 30th May, 2026.

1. Signing of the Nominal Roll

Students are required to register each semester by signing the Nominal Roll via the student portal within the first three (3) weeks. The initial deadline of Friday 13th March, 2026 was extended by Senate to Friday 17th April, 2026, as communicated on the University website.

Students who did not sign the Nominal Roll by the extended deadline are advised to defer their studies to avoid discontinuation.

2. Revised Deadline for Payment of Fees for Students who have Signed Nominal Roll

In accordance with the University Fees Payment Policy, all students were required to clear fees within the first eight (8) weeks of the semester, by Friday 17th April, 2026.

Students who signed the Nominal Roll but have outstanding fees are hereby informed that the deadline for fee clearance has been extended to Sunday 3rd May, 2026, as approved by the Vice-Chancellor.

All affected students must clear their fees by this date in order to:

- i. Be included in the official examination lists; and
- ii. Download their examination cards via the student portal.

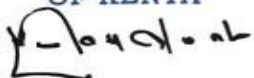

3. Consequences of Non-Compliance

Results for students who do not meet these requirements will be deemed invalid. The TUsoft system has been configured to block upload of results for ineligible students.

Compliance with these requirements is mandatory to avoid disruption of academic progression.
