TUK 2026 Conference Accommodation and Travel Information

Technical University of Kenya (TUK) is located within Nairobi CBD. Nairobi is the administrative and commercial capital of Kenya. The hotels recommended are mostly within the Nairobi central business district and within a short distance from Technical University of Kenya, the conference venue. CAB hailing services such as UBER, Faras and Bolt are easily available. The rates vary from Kshs 500 -1000 (USD 4-8) depending on the distance from hotel to Technical University of Kenya (TUK) and hotel shuttles. The main point of entry to Kenya is Jomo Kenyatta International Airport, its 21 KM from Nairobi CBD and takes 30 mins drive depending on traffic. A CAB from JKIA to Nairobi CBD charges approximately 20 USD. A University shuttle will pick guests from the hotels in the morning at 8.30 AM and drop them back in the evening at 5.30 PM.

Visa Requirements

For foreign national visa requirements, please visit the following website for information and the visa application process.
