

Master the Art of Presentation & Grant Writing

This workshop focuses on practical training to improve presentation and grant proposal skills. Participants will learn techniques and gain confidence to deliver impactful presentations in various settings (physical and digital) and to create successful grant applications.

Why Attend

Presentation Mastery

- ✓ The art of story telling in science
- ✓ Learn how to fight stage fright and still your confidence
- ✓ Tips for adapting your presentation style to virtual and in-person settings
- ✓ Best practices of creating compelling content, appealing aids for both physical and digital formats

 28th-30th, April

 9AM - 5PM

 Technical University of Kenya

Register until 18th April

<https://shorturl.at/oqf54>

Interactive Learning

- ✓ Walk away with actionable strategies and templates you can use immediately.
- ✓ Personalized feedback from experienced trainers.
- ✓ Practical exercises, case studies, and peer reviews.

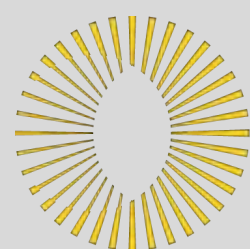

Who should apply

- ✓ Postgraduates
- ✓ Early career researchers
- ✓ Interested professionals
- ✓ Post-docs

Grant Writing Excellence

- ✓ Key components of successful grant proposals.
- ✓ Crafting clear, compelling, and persuasive narratives.
- ✓ Insider tips on funding research, aligning with criteria, and avoiding common mistakes.

Sponsors

The Association of Commonwealth Universities

THE TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY OF KENYA
Education and Training for the Real World

Kibabii University

Hosts

Progress Research Forum